

Markus Lifenet Ltd.

Certificate of Conformity

This certificate provides assurance that the Markusnet man overboard recovery products are made in Iceland to the IMO/LSA code and complies with our SOLAS Certificate of Type Approval.

The Markusnet is a commercial man overboard recovery system, mainly constructed from polyester webbing and polypropelen ropes. Metal parts and are made of marine grade stainless steel and float material and reflective tape of SOLAS approved standards. The rigid container is made of rotation moulded Polyetheline.

The Markusnet does not contain either Asbestos or PCB.

Issued by

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Petur Th Petursson".

Petur Th Petursson Managing Director.

Man overboard safety and rescue is our concern and specialty.

1

